Organization Plan

Submitted by Mark A. Hackel, County Executive
January 29, 2015

This Plan is being submitted as required by the Macomb County Home Rule Charter. I am not proposing any changes to the organization of County government at this time for the simple reason that I don't believe any changes are necessary at this time. Since no changes are being proposed, there is no financial impact on the County. Public access to the expenditure records of the County will continue to be provided in the same manner as outlined in the Organizational Plan approved by the Commission in 2011.
